TONIGHT the Cohan & Harris production of "Hit-the-Trail Holiday" will be given at the Grand. The advance sale of seats has been large and every indication points to a big house.

While it is a fact that the sensational methods employed by "Billy" Sunday first suggested the plot of this "Holiday" comedy, the only point of convergence between the character of the breezy young hero of the Cohan play and that the ballplayer evangelist is that each in time became a crusader against intemperance. Sunday originally was known to Broadway as a ballplayer; "Billy" Holiday attained renown along the Great White Way for exceptional gifts in the expert compounding of those liquids and solids requisite to gloom dispellers, such as the cocktail of Bronx and the fizz reminiscent of New Orleans. To reveal the dips, spurs and angles of the plot would be to give away the whole story. The "Holiday" press agent says he has always held that to do so is wrong practice, tending to destroy illusion and steal away the surprises of a performance. There are many of the latter in the exciting and laughable experience that come to "Holiday" who makes the most of them and is ably assisted by a well-balanced company of comedy artists.

The Lewis-Oliver Players will be seen during the last half of the week in one of Mr. Lewis' original presentations of "Mother and Son." This play has never as yet been produced here, although it is one of the strongest in the Lewis-Oliver repertoire. The plot is full of thrills and contains enough comedy to make a well-balanced play.

Last night the Hippodrome was again packed to the doors. The current production is positively the best comedy these players have yet essayed and it is a laugh from beginning to end, with just a slight pause here and there to allow Miss Grandin and Mr. Glanston inject the dramatic element of the piece. The little Fairmont girls, who are a big feature of the play, act their parts like matured thespians. There's not a hint of stage fright in any of their doings and they have not only won their way into the hearts of the audience, but the entire company views their work with admiration. The little three-year-old boy who plays the part of the "Kid-napped" enjoys the freedom of the stage, but is always on the spot when his turn comes. He has a speaking part and licks his little "yes" without any signs of embarrassment. Miss Grandin has tutored him quite successfully. We can't help but saying a final word for "Bob" Milton. With just a little Irish brogue he'd make as good an "Aunt Bridget" as George Monroe ever was. But the fine thing about it—he acts so ducally natural; doesn't attempt any "female impersonation" with the voice, but his tongue wags and his "sneers" and face wrinkles are so provokingly funny that he simply convulsed the audience.

"All for a Girl," story by Rupert Hughes, is screened at the Princess today. Renee Kelly is the star in this five part feature from the studios of the Mirograph Corporation.

Reno's voice was not quite as good last night as the night before, but his part as the deputy sheriff in the play was without a blemish. Wonder why Lewis didn't cast Fleming for the part of "Schultz" instead of giving it to Dave Heilman? He's fatter.

We had a little private laugh all to ourselves last night when Jack Lewis made a bee-line for the woodshed to take care of "Mr. Stubbins," who was beyond the power of self propulsion. We just sort of thought that maybe Stubbins didn't have it all inside of him. Oh, you woodshed!

Miss Marjorie Morgan's part in the play at the Hipp last night, though of little import to the story, was charmingly portrayed. In the country dance scene is where she was refuted, however.

SOMETIMES.
"Telephones are a great time saver, aren't they?"
"Well, that depends upon who calls you up."

For the sake of a few votes the Democratic county ring protects bootlegging and makes a joke of the Yost law. Vote the ring out of office.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

THOUSANDS HAVE DISCOVERED DR. EDWARD'S OLIVE TABLETS ARE HARMLESS SUBSTITUTE

Dr. Edward's Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edward's determination not to treat liver and bowel complaint with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edward's Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edward's Olive Tablets when you feel "foggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

TWO STARS IN TONIGHT'S COMEDY.

FRANK OTTO who plays the part of Holiday in Cohan's latest comedy success.

LOLA MERRIL The minister's daughter in "Hit-the-Trail Holiday" at the Grand tonight.

Through The Political Periscope

Instead of helping to defeat Judge Robinson, the Vinson-Marcum, et al, letters, should elect him overwhelmingly. It shows up the whole scheme, the complete alliance between Watson Democrats and Vinson Republicans. If the voters of the State can't wise themselves up to what has been going on and is now under way, there is immediate need for a decided improvement in our education system.

If John Cornwell has made an important statement or uttered a charge which hasn't been disproved to the complete satisfaction of an impartial public, it is because he has made so many misstatements that a few corrections may have been overlooked.

The Democratic campaign in West Virginia seems to have been mapped out on the supposition that most of the people are either ignoramuses or fools. As a matter of fact most of the people are neither.

Treasurer Beall should arrange with Gold Hill Bill to give a sheet of mining stock with each contribution to Boss Watson's "popular" campaign fund.

Judge Robinson's reputation for truth and honesty is such that it will take more than the word of Messrs. Vinson, McKell, Marcum, Houston, Hall and Lilly to convince the people of West Virginia that he is wrong and they are right.

He kept us out of 'war when nobody wanted to fight us, says the Toledo Blade.

In 1904 they advertised him as "Honest John Cornwell." In 1916 it is just plain "John," showing how fashions change in eight short years.

If Gold Hill Bill would pay up that shortage which was discovered when he quit the office of Secretary of State, the taxpayers of West Virginia might be disposed to stop long enough to listen to what he is talking about in this campaign.

With a war-made prosperity, it is entirely proper to have "war tax" isn't it? Of course.

Taylor Vinson's senatorial ambition is now ready for the moth balls.

Honest Democrats are invited to help save the government of the people by casting their votes for Judge Robinson and the entire Republican State ticket. It is the only choice they have it so happens.

That was a frame up which would do credit to a bunch of yeggmen. And yet, these are the men who would take over the government of West Virginia. God save the State!

It was Judge Thomas A. Brown, the able and brilliant lawyer and publicist of Parkersburg, who recently reminded the people of West Virginia, that "God Almighty hates a quitter."

No wonder John wouldn't debate with Governor Hatfield. He is having a hard enough time going it alone.

Taylor Vinson will now probably share honors in Huntington as Cornwell's manager with the Hon. Loud Bill Fitch.

HEADACHE FROM A COLD? LISTEN!

"PAPE'S COLD COMPOUND" ENDS SEVERE COLDS OR GRIPPE IN FEW HOURS.

Your cold will break all gripe misery and after taking a dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" every two hours until three doses are taken.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head—nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Accept no substitute.

women of the Nation." Mr. Wilson said "STATE"—not nation. On the other side, over the name of Mr. Hughes, is merely a question mark (?). Of course the Democratic managers know that Mr. Hughes was a justice of the Supreme Court in 1915 and that it would have been highly improper for him to express his views on woman suffrage; but they think the women voters won't know that being women, they can deceive them.

Mock Preparedness:
Although Congress was so anxious to get work started on the new battle-ships it authorized this year that it provided that the Secretary of the Navy could add a bonus of 20 per cent. of the cost for speed, Secretary Daniels is holding up the plans for their construction and it is predicted by naval officers that it will be far into the next administration before the keel of a single battleship is laid. Congress appropriated $6,000,000 to make certain government navy yards to build these ships, because of the crowded condition of the private yards, but Daniels has held this work up entirely. Not a hand has been turned toward preparing the navy yards for the big task. All of this goes to show that the Wilson administration is only for preparedness when it believes it can gain votes thereby; and proves that real preparedness and Daniels cannot exist in the same administration.

SPORT NOTES

Jess Willard is with us again. He's telling Fred Fulton to go out and get a reputation. Remembering Jess' past he's got an awful nerve.

THE FALL OF THE MIGHTY
Bill Carrigan is going into politics. Bill Clymer, manager of the Louisville Colonels, has challenged the Red Sox for a post-season series. As a personal publicity agent, Bill is all there.

More votes for Hughes. Cleveland barbers raise price of shaves. New York golfers go to sleep in bathtub. We know some fellows who never could do that.

Porky Flynn is to box again. O pliffe!
If Bill Carrigan is as good a campaigner in politics as he is in baseball, there will be nothing to it in Lewiston, Me., this year.

"We lost in October, that doesn't count." Slogan for the football alibi month.

ANANIAS PLEASE NOTE
Pittsfield (Mass.) man is fined $10 for telling he caught a trout with his hands.

EXPENSE ACCOUNT RULING.
CHARLESTON, Oct. 13.—It has been found that some nominees for public offices in West Virginia have failed to file statements of expense incurred in their candidacies' election. The law requires these statements to be filed within 30 days after the primary. An opinion has been given by the Attorney General. He says that penalties are provided for failure to file statements and that such statements may be filed even after 30 days have elapsed from the primary date.

TOMORROW

THURSDAY

SAVED FROM THE HAREM

A strong story, full of intrigue, tense situations, and in the hands of a cast amply able to bring out of the story all there is in it. There are four reels, and not a dull moment in one of them.

A SAUERKRAUT SYMPHONY

This is the first comedy reel we have yet shown with Ham, Bud, Ethel Teare and Henry Murdoch, the latter character being the fourth to be added. It ought to be a scream.

OPEN FROM 1 TO 11 P. M.

ADMISSION 5c

MONONGAH

Lodge Meets.
The members of the Black Diamond Lodge No. 72 of Monongah met at the Castle hall last evening to arrange for the new page rank class that was recently organized. A large number of the members were present and pledged their allegiance to the work. Work will begin at once to secure members.

Search Continued.
Sheriff Cal Conaway and several other officers of Fairmont motored to Monongah yesterday, where Constable "Bill" Findley and policeman Alva Moore assisted in searching for Joe Strickler. The woods surrounding Monongah were searched but his whereabouts were not learned.

New Game.
"Twenty-One" is a name of a new game that has been introduced in Monongah during the summer by the foreign population and is at present very popular in Monongah among the Italians. The game resembles croquet and is one of the leading sports in Southern Italy. Teams have been organized which meet about every evening "rain or shine."

PERSONALS.
Mrs. John Williams and son, Buster, of Cleveland, O., have returned home after a several days visit with relatives here.
Mrs. J. R. Lake was a shopper in Fairmont yesterday afternoon. Miss Niel Barker was called to Morgantown yesterday afternoon by the serious illness of her father.

Miss Hallie and Alma Orr were social callers in Fairmont yesterday.
Mrs. Lloyd Sample, of Fairmont, was a business caller in Monongah yesterday.
Miss Zeila Lambiotte and mother of Fairmont were calling in town yesterday.

ODD BET OFFERED.
CLARKSBURG, Oct. 13.—A prominent West Main street business man today offered to bet $1,000 on the election as follows: One-third of the sum that Robinson will carry West Virginia for the governorship; one third that Hughes will carry the state for the Presidency and one-third that Hughes will be elected president, the winner of any two of the bets to get the entire wager. So far there has been no takers.
